About Essensa

Essensa is a group purchasing organization (GPO) that provides strategic procurement solutions and operational support to reduce costs and increase efficiency for the City of New York's community-based organizations (CBOs). Members have access to a broad portfolio of over 2,000 contracts, with discounts on products and services that cover all aspects of your business needs.

As a wholly-owned subsidiary of Premier, one of the nation's largest performance improvement organizations, Essensa is uniquely positioned to help its members by leveraging a total purchasing volume of over $60 billion to negotiate aggressive contract pricing.

We offer analysis to ensure optimized use of contracts, consulting to help streamline your supply chain, and opportunities for overall improved operating efficiencies. Essensa currently serves over 32,225 members across the United States.

In addition to the contracts listed in the following pages, Essensa offers class-of-trade-specific products and services at a discount. Ask an Essensa representative for a list of available healthcare contracts that may be pertinent to your facility.

Portfolio categories include:

- Administration, Financial & Management Services
